Academic Eligibility, Intercollegiate Athletics

Purpose

To distinguish between campus expectations for academic progress and those outlined by the athletics organizations and governing bodies.

Policy

This policy exists to describe the academic eligibility of student athletes for intercollegiate sports.

Scope and Definitions

This policy applies to student-athletes. Most academic requirements are mandated by an outside governing athletic institution or league and are not determined by Haskell.

Procedure

Students who wish to participate in varsity sport at Haskell need to contact the Faculty Athletic Representative and Registrar to determine eligibility.

Sanctions and Notifications

Eligibility is determined by the Faculty Athletic Representative and Registrar using appropriate governing guidelines.

Appeals and Deadlines

Appeals of eligibility determination will be conducted through appropriate athletic organization and governing bodies.

Recordkeeping Authority and Designation

The Faculty Athletic Representative and Registrar will keep appropriate records of athletic eligibility.

Vetting Process and Final Approval

- A. Faculty Senate - Academic Standards Committee
- B. Vice-President for Academics and Academic Deans
- C. President's Executive Council
- D. President
